BASEBALL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Shut-outs are blooming this month. There have been eight in each major league so far.

Throughout the West the verdict on the Lord-Rath deal is that Cleveland was stung.

The Pittsburghs did some robust walling in Boston. In three consecutive games they strung together forty-one bingles.

We feel perfectly safe in venturing the prediction that the Highlanders will finish in the first division—New York Morning Telegraph.

They want the earth down in Philadelphia. They have the Athletics and that ought to satisfy any town, but they are jealous because our Fred Snodgrass is leading their Sherwood Magee in the race for the champion batsman's automobile—New York Morning Telegraph.

Press notice says Snodgrass will be disqualified as an auto contender unless his number of times at bat is largely increased. To qualify for an auto an outfielder must have been at bat 350 times. Snodgrass' total in recent averages was 178. Playing regularly now until the end of the season he's likely to pass 350 times at bat. There's this to say about Snodgrass: He's less concerned about the machine than about the team's success, but his average is due entirely to merit, make no mistake on that. His hitting has been clean and against all kinds of pitching—New York Sun.
